

CUMULATED UPDATES TO VOLUME 2, BENNY CARTER:
A LIFE IN AMERICAN MUSIC (2nd ed.)

As a service to purchasers of the book, we will periodically update the material contained in Vol. 2. These updates follow the basic format used in the book's Addendum section (pp. 809-822), and will include 1) any newly discovered sessions; 2) additional releases of previously listed sessions (by session number); 3) additional recordings of Carter's arrangements and compositions (by title); 4) additional releases of previously listed recordings of Carter's arrangements and compositions (by artist); 5) additional recorded tributes to Carter and entire albums of his music; and 6) additional awards received by Carter. We would welcome any new data in any of these areas. Readers may send information to Ed Berger (eberger4@verizon.net).

NOTE: This cumulated version include all listings published in the book's Addendum section as well as the current additions and all previous additions posted to the website. To see only the latest additions, click on the file:

Addendum to Session #151

January 5, 1946 (New York)

LEE RICHARDSON WITH BC AND THE ALL STARS

BC (as), Richardson (v)

Lonesome Morning Blues [165] (8as)

78: Deluxe 3196

NOTE: The matrix number would place this item at the Jan. 5 session, which was made with Carter's regular orchestra. The musicians listed on the label ("F. Phillips, R. Procope, D. Byas, B. Carter, E. Berry, J. Newman, N. Hefti, T. Young, D. Wells, A. Casey, J.C. Heard, J. Simmons"), however, are all drawn from the personnel on Session #152, recorded for Deluxe two days later with an all-star band. As Carter is the only soloist, no other hints may be drawn from solo evidence. The instrumentation sounds like a full big band, not the smaller group indicated by the label. This side is likely from the Jan. 5 session, with the label either inadvertently or deliberately listing the better-known artists of the Jan. 7 date.

Peaceful Warrior [features Kevin Mahogany, vocal].

Song for Coretta

The Journey [features Marva Lewis, vocal and Phil Woods, as].

Brothers Under the Skin [features Marva Lewis and Kevin Mahogany, vocals, Phil Woods, as].

NOTE: This suite, dedicated to the Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr. was Carter's last extended work. Commissioned by the Library of Congress, its only performance was its premiere by Carter at the Lincoln Theater in Washington on June 8, 1996. Carter wrote the words and music, which he scored for a big band and string section. On the Jazz Ambassadors' recording, which uses Carter's original parts, Phil Woods plays the alto solos.

CD #2:

*A Walkin' Thing: [c]—transcribed from Jazz Giant by Vince Norman; includes transcription for the sax section of Carter's alto solo.

*Summer Serenade: [c]—arr. by John Clayton.

When Lights Are Low: [c]—arr. by Darryl Brenzel.

Key Largo: [c]--arr. by Michael Abene.
Easy Money: [c]—arr. by Mike Sweeney.
How Can You Lose?: [c]—arr. by Chuck Owen.

All That Jazz

Marlene VerPlanck: “My Man Benny,” composed by Phil Woods and dedicated to BC, sung by VerPlanck, recorded August-September 2003, Audiophile 325 (Marlene VerPlanck, It’s How You Play the Game).

Phil Woods: “Section 6” (Out of Nowhere/The Song Is You/I Only Miss Her When I Think of Her) is dedicated to Carter. Recorded 5/2000; Philology W304 (The Solo Album: Phil Woods in Italy).

Phil Woods/Lee Konitz: “My Man Benny,” composed by Phil Woods and dedicated to BC. Recorded in Umbria, Italy, July 15-17, 2003, Philology 310 (Big Encounter at Umbria, Vol.3: Play Woods).

SAMPLING

The opening of Carter’s trumpet solo on “I Surrender Dear” (Session #164—AFRS Jubilee) and a bit of Ernie “Bubbles” Whitman’s announcement are sampled on “Makes You Extatic” by the Tao of Groove, recorded ca. 2002, on Fresh Goods (Groove Gravy 1100).

AWARDS

July 14, 2001: Carter named “Officier de l’Ordre des Arts et des Lettres” by the Republic of France, Le Ministre de la Culture et de la Communication. Medal presented at the French Consulate, Los Angeles. (Certificate dated March 6, 1998 but presentation made July 14, 2001.)

March 27, 2003: “NABOB Pioneer in Music Award” award from the National Association of Black Owned Broadcasters. Other honorees: Muhammad Ali, Diana Ross, Alexis Herman, LL Cool J, Audra McDonald, and Antoine Fuqua.

August 24, 2003: “UCLA Duke Ellington Master of Jazz Award,” awarded posthumously at UCLA; Mrs. Hilma Carter accepted the award from Quincy Jones.

CORRECTIONS for BENNY CARTER: A LIFE IN AMERICAN MUSIC (2nd ed.)

Vol. 1, p. 530: The name of Ira Nepus was inadvertently omitted from the index; he is mentioned on p. 501.

Vol. 2, p. 100: BC solo routine for “Tiger Rag” should read (96ts) instead of (96as).

Vol. 2, p. 168: Mosaic releases have incorrect prefixes: should read MQ19-170 and MQ12-170.

Vol. 2, p. 175: The annotation to session # 142 implies that “Rosita” is announced as “Slick Mix” on the Jazz Society and Jazz Anthology LPs. The announcement is only on the original Jubilee show and is not included on the LP tracks.

Vol. 2, pp. 261-262: Capitol 28515 does not contain all titles from sessions #264A and #264B. The CD contains only “All of You” from these sessions.

Vol. 2, p. 549: Doc Cheatham’s recording of Blues in My Heart (9/92, The Eighty-Seven Years of Doc Cheatham) was erroneously given as Columbia 47407. The correct catalog number is CK53215.

Vol. 2, p. 586: The composers of “Midnight” are listed as Gomez/Parker. We neglected to note that this is a BC composition, written under his occasional pseudonym “Johnny Gomez;” Kay Parker is the lyricist.
